WHAT IS TRAFFICKING?

There are two common types of trafficking:

Human trafficking is the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision or obtaining of an individual who under force, fraud or coercion is induced to perform a commercial sex act, or for the purpose of involuntary servitude, debt bondage or slavery.

HOW DOES IT OFTEN HAPPEN?

WHAT ARE THE SIGNS?

LABOR TRAFFICKING

- Are living and working in isolated conditions, cut off from interaction with others or support systems
- Owe money to an employer or recruiter and/or not being paid what they were promised or are owed
- Are working in dangerous conditions, without proper safety gear, training, adequate breaks and other protections
- Are living in dangerous, overcrowded or inhumane conditions provided by an employer
- Feel pressured by their employer to stay in a job or situation they want to leave
- Appear to be monitored by another person when or interacting with others
- Are being threatened by their boss with deportation or other harm
- Do not have control of their passport or other identity documents

SEX TRAFFICKING

- They have an older, or simply controlling parent, guardian, romantic partner or "sponsor" who will not allow you to meet or speak with the person alone or monitors their movements, spending and/or communications
- They work in an industry where it may be common to be pressured into performing sex acts, such as a strip club, illicit cantina, or illicit massage business
- They want to stop participating in selling or trading sex but feel scared or unable to leave
- They disclose that they were reluctant to engage in selling sex but that someone pressured them into it
- They live where they work or are transported by guards between home and workplace
- They are being treated often for STDs/ STIs
- Checking into hotels/motels with older males, and referring to those males as boyfriend or "daddy," which is often street slang for pimp
- Tattoos/ branding on the neck and/or lower back
